

"The 10th floor now offers the most beautiful display space for paintings anywhere in the Western world."

—SOUREN MELIKIAN, International Herald Tribune
Jan. 12-13, 2002

ROSSC0016

"One of the great dramatic exhibition spaces of New York . . .

Sotheby's has created an environment to rival almost any of the city's museums."

— Art & Auction, December 1999

Our premises also feature the largest and only column-free salesroom in New York (above), providing unobstructed views between the auctioneer and all bidders.

The salesroom seats up to 1,200 people and features a mezzanine level with 12 private skyboxes which allow VIP clients to bid in privacy.

